1. Who we are: details of our organisation

Name: Craven and Keighley Area Quaker Meeting. (Abbreviated in this policy to 'Craven and Keighley AM'). Craven and Keighley AM is a part of Britain Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers)

2. Statement of intent

Advices & Queries 19: 'Rejoice in the presence of children and young people in your Meeting and recognise the gifts they bring. Remember that the Meeting as a whole shares responsibility of every child in its care.'

As a Meeting we recognise the need to provide a safe and caring environment for children and vulnerable adults. This policy is intended to protect children and vulnerable adults from abuse. The Appendices set out definitions and signs of abuse and appropriate responses to anyone revealing abuse. Craven and Keighley Area Meeting is committed to developing a culture of awareness of Safeguarding issues to help protect everyone.

3. Standards - Thirtyone:Eight Ten 'Safe and Secure'

Craven and Keighley Area Meeting is a member of Thirtyone:Eight, the churches' Safeguarding agency, and is committed to following its guidance and recommendations. Our policy is based on the ten Safe and Secure Safeguarding standards and is prepared in conjunction with Quaker Life advice. Thirtyone:Eight recommends that all organisations achieve ten standards. They are:

1. Adopt a Safeguarding Policy in which a Safeguarding Coordinator is named
2. Develop Safeguarding awareness training
3. Carry out safe recruitment
4. Manage workers and volunteers effectively
5. Work safely
6. Communicate effectively
7. Respond to concerns

8. Provide pastoral care
9. Manage those who pose a risk
10. Work in partnership

These standards are explained further in the Thirtyone:Eight manual 'Safe and Secure'. The manual is available on the Thirtyone:Eight website. Access to the secure membership area is by a password obtainable from the AM Safeguarding Coordinator. Help and guidance are also available from the Safeguarding Officer at Britain Yearly Meeting (BYM) of the Society of Friends, through Quaker Life. Further guidance on equalities, volunteer involvement, participation, and event and activity management as they relate to Children and Young People's work at the BYM website (<https://www.quaker.org.uk/children-and-young-people/work-quaker-setting/policies-procedures>).

4. Definitions of terms used in this policy

A child is defined as any person under the age of 18 years.

A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 years or over, who is in receipt of, or may be in need of, community care services, by reason of mental or other disability, age or illness, and who is, or may be, unable to take care of him or herself, or unable to protect him or herself against significant harm or exploitation (BYM definition).

An Alert is any concern regarding the welfare of a child or vulnerable adult, which is raised by someone in a Meeting. All Alerts should be passed to the AM Safeguarding Coordinators.

A Report is a formal referral to Social Services. Usually this will be carried out by an AM Safeguarding Coordinator.

A Friend (or Quaker) is a member or regular attender of the Religious Society of Friends

A Meeting is the Quaker word for an established congregation of Friends, although it is also used (sometimes with a lowercase "m") to refer to a particular event that is a gathering of Friends (eg. Meeting for Worship).

5. Summary of activities undertaken with children and vulnerable adults

- Weekly Children and Young People Meetings/classes are held occasionally in Local Meetings on a Sunday for an hour, when children attend. Parents/guardians typically meet elsewhere in a nearby room although they are not required to stay. The classes are run by volunteer adults from the Meeting.
- We do not presently pay for help with the children in any LM.
- We run residential events open to all adults and children eg Weekends spent at Glenthorne Quaker guest home in Grasmere.
- AM nominates young people to Junior Yearly Meeting (JYM) and other nationally and regionally-organised activities, including the reporting back to AM after attending such an event.
- There are no specific activities organised for vulnerable adults as a group but we are aware that Vulnerable Adults attend and are members/attenders of our Meetings and join in with activities. The pastoral care of those attending Meeting is entrusted to overseers, who are appointed by the AM. Overseers who are aware that they have oversight of a vulnerable adult will typically pay particular attention to his or her needs, and may help to ensure that they are in contact with the correct professional support. We do not have specific volunteers to help with vulnerable adults in the same way that we do for children.

6. Responsibilities for the implementation of the policy

6.1 Trustees

Craven and Keighley Area Meeting Trustees hold overall responsibility for Safeguarding throughout the Area Meeting.

They will:

1. Ensure an AM Safeguarding Policy is in place which follows all relevant national legislation and has regard to local Safeguarding procedures, advice from Quaker Life and relevant advice from Thirtyone:Eight;
2. Ensure that one or more AM Safeguarding Coordinator(s) is/are appointed who will be responsible for ensuring that structures are in place for the implementation of the Safeguarding Policy throughout Area Meeting;
3. Support the Safeguarding Coordinators in their work and in any action they may need to take in order to protect children and vulnerable adults;
4. Receive from the Safeguarding Coordinators an annual report detailing the implementation of the policy and alerting Trustees to any changes in policy and practice that may be required;
5. Ensure that procedures are in place for the Safeguarding Policy to be reviewed and revised as appropriate;
6. File a copy of the policy, and any amendments subsequently published, with Thirtyone:Eight, Quaker Life and with the relevant local authority.
7. Review this policy every 2 years.

6.2 Area Meeting Safeguarding Coordinators

The role of the Safeguarding Coordinators is to:

1. Ensure the needs of children and vulnerable adults are properly considered by AM and each LM;
2. Ensure that each LM has a copy of this policy and is aware of their LM responsibilities in relation to the standards set by the Policy;
3. Ensure the implementation of the policy at LM level by working with LM appointed persons and facilitating training relating to Safeguarding issues;
4. Keep AM trustees informed regarding the implementation of this Policy. In particular provide a written report once a year to AM trustees.

The report should include:

- a. Names of appointed persons and all those responsible for Safeguarding at a LM level,
 - b. Induction and training undertaken,
 - c. The organisation and management of volunteers,
 - d. Any concerns or disclosures of abuse that have arisen (whilst maintaining appropriate confidentiality),
 - e. Recommendations for any updates to this policy.
5. Receive Alerts from Local Meetings or individuals in a Meeting
 6. Act independently in reporting concerns of abuse to the statutory authorities;
 7. Receive and keep confidential records of formal Alerts/Reports. (See Section 4 for the definition of an Alert and Reports and Appendix 3.2 for Template for Safeguarding Records). All records should be kept, encrypted, in digital format on the cloud so that, as Safeguarding Coordinators change, there is no need to transfer the information to the new Friend's personal computer. The documents must be password protected and access will only be available to the relevant people. All records must be simple, clear and factual, with no opinions or thoughts expressed by the person writing up the record. In a situation where a person, following disclosure, decides they do not want to take it any further this must be recorded with a clear note that no further action is to be taken.

6.3 Local Meeting

Elders, together with overseers, are responsible for the care of children in Meeting (Quaker Faith and Practice 12.12. and 12.13) and Overseers have responsibility for the care of vulnerable adults as part of their pastoral duties. Abuse is more likely to occur where volunteers are not accountable or are not overseen by others. Someone who intends to abuse a child could use the contact with children and parents at Meeting to develop a relationship with the family. It is the duty of Overseers and Elders, of the Children's Committee, and of the whole Meeting to be aware of relationships developing within the Meeting, and to consider whether they could be exploitative.

This mutual care and oversight is a central aspect of Quaker life:

'Our sense of community does not depend on all professing identical beliefs, for it grows from worshipping together, knowing one another, loving one another, accepting responsibilities, sharing and working together....the Meeting will only live if we develop a sense of community, which includes children and adults alike' QFP 10,03

Local Meetings should seek to create an 'arena of safety' around the children. This policy, DBS checks, and careful recruitment of the volunteers all contribute to this. Oversight of the volunteers' interaction with the children, and vigilance on all our parts is vital. It is important to ensure that those responsible for children are aware of appropriate boundaries around their contact with children, which may be difficult when volunteers know some of the children and their parents as well.

Local meetings should ensure safe, secure, & confidential storage of all documents related to Appointing People, recruitment of potential Helpers, and Alerts/Records of any cases

Appointed Persons

Local Meetings should appoint two Appointed Persons, one responsible for children and one responsible for vulnerable adults. Names will be brought forward from the Local Meeting Nomination's committee. The duties and responsibilities of the Appointed persons are set out in 6.4 below. In many Meetings the Appointed Person for children will be the convenor of Children's Meeting. The Appointed Person for vulnerable adults will normally be the Convenor of Overseers. LM may decide what is most appropriate for its own Meeting, but the appointments must be made through the LM Nominations process and the children's Appointed Person must also hold a Vetting and Barring certificate. In the case of small meetings without any individual with DBS clearance they can request assistance from the AM Safeguarding Coordinator but the only children's work they do should have parents present throughout. Everyone in the meeting must be aware of this, and abide by this requirement.

Health and Safety and Fire

Local Meetings must ensure that appropriate policies and procedures are in place for Health and Safety and for Fire, and that the Meeting has considered the implications of these policies for children and vulnerable adults.

Poster

There is a poster, which is maintained as a separate document, and is available from the same place as this policy, which should be completed and displayed in all LMs, so every adult and child in Meeting knows who to contact with a concern. The display of the poster also makes a statement to all newcomers and visitors that we are committed to Safeguarding.

Local Practice Guidelines

Local Meeting should consider developing and implementing local Practice Guidelines for helpers relevant to their particular LM. This may include outlining what happens in a typical Children's Meeting, how volunteers work together, where equipment is kept, any safety hazards to be aware of in the building and fire procedures etc. Practice guidelines should follow the principles of this policy and a copy should be sent to the AM Safeguarding Coordinators. A general Code of Conduct for Volunteers and good practice guidelines for every activity are available through www.quaker.org.uk /Children and Young People/Resources/Procedures.

6.3.1 Local Meeting Appointed Persons

The role of the Local Meeting Appointed Persons is to:

1. Draw to the attention of LM the needs of children and vulnerable adults, including ensuring that Health and Safety and Fire risks are attended to in Meeting;

2. Maintain communication with the AM Safeguarding Coordinators and ensure that they receive appropriate updates and communications;
3. Familiarise themselves with this policy and Quaker Life guidelines such as the 'Meeting Safety' document;
4. Attend suitable training;
5. Ensure that all children's helpers are adequately assessed before they begin work with children. Vigilant recruitment practices are crucial to Safeguarding.

6.3.2 Recruiting Children's Helpers

Meetings are reminded that it is now a criminal offence to recruit someone to work in a 'regulated' or 'controlled' activity who is not registered by the Vetting and Barring Service. (Further details can be found in the Thirtyone:Eight website).

The following minimum recruitment standards should be followed before a volunteer is accepted as a Children's Helper:

1. All voluntary roles should have a written Job Description outlining the main tasks of the role and applicant helpers should be given a copy.
2. A Recruitment form including a self-declaration statement must be completed. See Appendix 3.2.1 for suggested format.
3. A face to face meeting should be conducted by the Appointed Person and at least one other person on the relevant committee. Forms and notes of the conversation should be retained by the Appointed Person. The potential volunteer should show commitment to Quaker values and be able to explain these in relation to work with Quaker children. Safeguarding should be discussed with the applicant and the potential volunteer should show a commitment to Safeguarding.
4. Two references must be obtained for each applicant. See Appendix 3.2.2 and 3.2.3 for suggested reference request letter and form. Phoning the referees as well as seeing the written reference is recommended. There should be one referee from each of the two categories below:
 - a. A Member or Attender known to the Meeting for at least 3 years;
 - b. Someone who has seen the applicant interacting with children. (This may include the applicant's own children.)

The lead volunteer in any children's class or meeting should have a clear Disclosure Form which has been seen by the LM Appointed Person. See Appendix 3.4 for guidance on disclosure and barring and relevant forms. An entry on a disclosure form does not necessarily debar someone from working with children if it is historical, minor, non-violent and non-sexual in nature, and not related to children or vulnerable adults. LM Appointed Persons should contact the AM Safeguarding Coordinators for advice if they receive a disclosure form with an entry. Further details regarding Vetting and Barring may be obtained from Quaker Life safe@quaker.org.uk 020 7663 1103.

Only at the end of the process outlined above should the applicant be approved. Local Meetings should be prepared to turn down applicants if they are not suitable and should have a procedure for doing this.

6.4.2. Training of Children's Helpers

1. All volunteers should receive an induction which includes Safeguarding standards before starting to volunteer. The induction should include clear guidelines as to how to respond to a disclosure and how to raise an Alert (see Section 7). Volunteers should also be given a copy of this policy and any LM guidelines. These actions are arranged through the AM Safeguarding Coordinator and/or LM Appointed Person (eg. see section 6.2.3) ;
2. Volunteers should be clearly aware of the overall framework of communication, responsibility and support within which the Children's Meeting(s) operate;
3. Volunteers should be aware of who is leading and organising the activities and should know who they can approach to raise any concerns in confidence. Volunteers should be involved in the planning of meetings and receive training to update them on Safeguarding at least once a year.
4. Volunteers must not arrange to meet children outside the context of Meeting activities without the parents' express knowledge and permission.

6.4.3 Record keeping:

Registers should be kept by the lead volunteer, listing the full names and attendance of all children, and the helpers, at each childrens class or event. These registers should be lodged with the LM clerk and retained permanently in case of future issues, or any allegations which might be made many years later. Local Meetings might consider archiving these records with their LM Minutes.

7 Procedures for responding to allegations or concerns

Appendices A1.1 and A2.1 set out statutory definitions of abuse and signs of abuse in children and vulnerable adults respectively; A1.2 and A2.2 highlight some signs to look out for which may indicate abuse is taking place; A1.3 and A2.3 give advice on how to respond to allegations or concerns. Under no circumstances should a volunteer or individual in Meeting carry out their own investigation into an allegation or suspicion of abuse. The flow chart in section 7.5 summarises the procedures.

7.1 Immediate procedures in case of urgent and immediate concern

Urgent concerns may include cases of deliberate injury by a parent or guardian, or suspicion that a child is in immediate danger in any setting.

- Any necessary medical help should be sought without delay, informing the doctor of any suspicions, and informing the LM Appointed Person and AM Safeguarding Coordinators afterwards;
- In a situation where a child is thought to be at immediate risk, it is not necessary to inform the parent or carer before taking action to raise an Alert;
- Contact the Police on 999 if the concern is very urgent and a child or adult is thought to be at immediate risk.

Within 24 hours anyone with such a concern should contact the LM Appointed Person, or if this is not possible, the AM Safeguarding Coordinator, who may then contact any of the agencies referenced in section 7.4, make an Alert, and/or make an official Report to the Statutory Agencies. The further procedures in 7.2 may then be followed. In the case of suspected institutional abuse see section 7.3.

7.2 Procedures for less urgent situations

Revelations or suspicions of abuse may result from events at Meeting and involve Members or Attenders at Meeting, or they may result from events that have happened outside Meeting e.g. at home or at school or in a nursing home. If anyone in Meeting has concerns or doubts about behaviour around children and vulnerable adults, even if they appear relatively trivial, they are encouraged to speak to the relevant persons listed below rather than others in the Meeting. Discussions should remain confidential. Information about newcomers who arrive, cause concern or suspicion, and then disappear should always be passed on to the AM Safeguarding Coordinators who are then able to warn other Meetings should the individual attend elsewhere.

Anyone with a concern should talk confidentially with:

- the LM Appointed Persons, or
- the AM Safeguarding Coordinators

All Concerns should then be passed by the LM Appointed Person to the AM Safeguarding Coordinator as an Alert. Knowledge of the issues involved should be kept confidential and made known only on a need to know basis. Written Reports of all concerns raised regarding the welfare of children or vulnerable adults must be made & kept confidentially, as well as records of all Reports to statutory agencies. (see definitions of Alerts and Records in Section 4). Sample templates for these records can be found in Appendix 3.2. Learning from the handling of the case should be discussed as required in Meeting without giving unnecessary details of the individual(s) involved.

The role of the LM Appointed Persons in this context is to collate and clarify the precise details of the allegation or suspicion and make a decision on how to respond. This may involve making a Report to the statutory agencies that have a legal duty to investigate. The Meeting will support the Appointed Persons in their role, and accept that any information they may have in their possession will be shared in a strictly limited way on a need to know basis. Where the concern is about an adult, the LM Appointed Person will discuss any concerns with the individual themselves, giving due regard to their autonomy, privacy and rights to lead an independent life.

Where appropriate the Safeguarding Coordinator should inform the Safeguarding Team for Britain Yearly Meeting (BYM) on 020 7663 1103. safe@quaker.org.uk

7.3 Abuse within a Quaker setting

If the concern relates to a Children's Helper/Volunteer:

The Appointed Person or an AM Safeguarding Coordinator should be contacted at once, thus raising an Alert. It is in the interests of all involved, including the volunteer, that the cause for the concern is understood and thought about carefully. It is the responsibility of the Safeguarding Coordinator to ensure appropriate action is taken, to protect children immediately, and to ensure the Alert is investigated and followed through appropriately. This may involve consultation with local authority Children's Social Care Services, and/or other agencies which can support the process.

If the concern relates to a LM Responsible Person or AM Safeguarding Coordinator:

Urgent contact should be made to the other LM Responsible People or the AM Safeguarding Coordinator, as appropriate, to trigger an Alert. If suspicions in any way involve both LM Responsible Persons and the AM Coordinator then the Safeguarding Team for Britain Yearly Meeting (BYM) should be contacted through Quaker Life on 020 7663 1103. safe@quaker.org.uk. Alternatively, Thirtyone:Eight may be contacted on 0303 003 11 11. You may also contact the local social services or the police on 101.

Personal Reports to statutory bodies

It is, of course, the right of any individual in Meeting to make a Report (see section 4 for definition) to the local social services, or seek advice from Thirtyone:Eight. Should the individual with the concern feel that the Safeguarding Co-coordinator has not responded appropriately, or if they have a disagreement with the Safeguarding Coordinator(s) as to the appropriateness of a Report, they are free to contact an outside agency directly. AM Trustees hope by making this statement that the Meeting demonstrates its commitment to effective Safeguarding and the protection of all those who are vulnerable.

7.4 Agencies for advice, support and action

The following agencies can offer advice and support:

- Thirtyone:Eight is an independent Christian charity providing child protection advice and support throughout the UK. 24 hour helpline: 0303 003 11 11

In case of crime contact:

- The Police on 999 in case of emergency

7.5 Flowchart for procedures to follow in the event of a concern, or an allegation of abuse.

8 Supporting those affected by abuse

Area Meeting is committed to offering pastoral care through our appointed Overseers and Elders to those that have been affected by abuse. AM will work with statutory agencies as appropriate, to support all those who have been affected by abuse or who have contact with, or who are members of the Meeting.

9 Working with offenders

When someone attending the Meeting is known to have abused children, or is known to be a risk to vulnerable adults, or there are allegations outstanding of such abuse or risk, it is the responsibility of appointed Elders and Overseers for the Meeting to set boundaries for that person, be vigilant that they are being upheld, and offer pastoral care, while being clear on the Meeting's commitment to the protection of children and vulnerable adults. This will be done in collaboration with any statutory agency which is involved with the individual, and in line with the Meeting Policy on Offenders attending Meeting. We also recognise the need of those who have been mistakenly or falsely accused and the role Elders and Overseers may have in supporting them.

Further advice may be sought from the AM Coordinators, Thirtyone Eight, and the BYM Safeguarding Officer.

Appendices

Appendix 1: Abuse of Children - Definitions, Signs, and Response

A1.1 Statutory definitions of abuse in children.

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting, by those known to them or, more rarely, by a stranger. They may be abused by an adult or adults or another child or children. Child protection legislation throughout the UK is based on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. Each nation within the UK has incorporated the convention within its legislation and guidance.

The Four definitions of Abuse below operate in England based on the government guidance 'Working Together to Safeguard Children (2006)'

Physical Abuse

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating, or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces illness in a child.

Emotional Abuse

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to children that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond the child's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, including prostitution, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative (e.g. rape, buggery or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts. They may include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, pornographic material or watching sexual activities, or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to provide adequate food and clothing, shelter including exclusion from home or abandonment, failing to protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger, failure to ensure adequate supervision including the use of inadequate care-takers, or the failure to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

Cyber abuse

A form of bullying or harassment using electronic means, also known as cyber bullying, cyber harassment or online bullying. Cyberbullying is when someone, typically teenagers, bully or harass others on social media sites. Harmful bullying behaviour can include posting rumors, threats, sexual remarks, a victims' personal information, or pejorative labels (i.e., hate speech). Bullying or harassment can be identified by repeated behaviour and an intent to harm. Victims may have lower self-esteem, increased suicidal ideation, and a variety of emotional responses, including being scared, frustrated, angry, and depressed.

Further definitions relating to child abuse:

Spiritual Abuse

Linked with emotional abuse, spiritual abuse could be defined as an abuse of power, often done in the name of God or religion, which involves manipulating or coercing someone into thinking, saying or doing things without respecting their right to choose for themselves. Some indicators of spiritual abuse might be a leader who is intimidating and imposes his/her will on other people, perhaps threatening dire consequences or the wrath of God if disobeyed. He or she may say that God has revealed certain things to them and so they know what is right. Those under their leadership are fearful to challenge or disagree, believing they will lose the leader's (or more seriously God's) acceptance and approval.

Significant Harm

This relates to the degree of harm that triggers statutory action to protect a child. It is based on the individual child's health or development compared to that which could reasonably be expected of a similar child. e.g. severity of ill treatment, degree and extent of physical harm, duration and frequency of abuse and neglect, premeditation. Department of Health guidance suggests that 'significant' means 'considerable, noteworthy or important.'

Children in Whom Illness is Fabricated or Induced

This is a form of child abuse in which the parents or carers give false accounts of symptoms in their children or may cause signs of illness. They seek repeated medical investigations and needless treatment for their children. The government guidance on this is found in 'Safeguarding Children in whom Illness is Fabricated or Induced' (2002).

Domestic Violence

The shared Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO), Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) and government definition of domestic violence is: 'any incident of threatening behaviour, violence or abuse (psychological, physical, sexual, financial or emotional) between adults, aged 18 and over, who are or have been intimate partners or family members, regardless of gender and sexuality.'

In 2004 the Government's definition of domestic violence was extended to include acts perpetrated by extended family members as well as intimate partners. Consequently, acts such as forced marriage and other so-called 'honour crimes', which can include abduction and homicide, can now come under the definition of domestic violence. Many of these acts are committed against children. (Working Together to Safeguard Children (2006) 6.18).

Organised Abuse

Complex (organised or multiple perpetrator) abuse may be defined as abuse involving one or more abusers and a number of children. The abusers concerned may be acting in concert to abuse children, sometimes acting in isolation, or may be using an institutional framework or position of authority to recruit children for abuse.

Complex abuse occurs both as part of a network of abuse across a family or community, and within institutions such as residential homes or schools. (Working Together to Safeguard Children (2006) Section 6.7).

Child Prostitution

Children involved in prostitution and other forms of commercial sexual exploitation should be treated primarily as the victims of abuse, and their needs require careful assessment. (Working Together to Safeguard Children' (2006) Section 6.2, see also 'Safeguarding Children Involved in Prostitution (2000)).

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM)

The World Health Organization defined FGM as all procedures involving partial or total removal or stitching up of the female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs whether for cultural or other non-therapeutic reasons.

A1.2 Signs of possible abuse in children

The following signs could be indicators that abuse has taken place but should be considered in context of the child's whole life. This list cannot be comprehensive, so think carefully about any worries you have.

Physical

- Injuries not consistent with the explanation given for them
- Injuries that occur in places not normally exposed to falls, rough games, etc
- Injuries that have not received medical attention
- Reluctance to change for, or participate in, games or swimming
- Repeated urinary infections or unexplained tummy pains
- Bruises on babies, bites, burns, fractures etc which do not have a credible accidental explanation*
- Cuts/scratches/substance abuse*

Sexual

- Any allegations made concerning sexual abuse
- Excessive preoccupation with sexual matters and detailed knowledge of adult sexual behaviour
- Age-inappropriate sexual activity through words, play or drawing
- Child who is sexually provocative or seductive with adults
- Inappropriate bed-sharing arrangements at home
- Severe sleep disturbances with fears, phobias, vivid dreams or nightmares, sometimes with overt or veiled sexual connotations
- Eating disorders - anorexia, bulimia*

Emotional

- Changes or regression in mood or behaviour, particularly where a child withdraws or becomes clinging
- Depression, aggression, extreme anxiety
- Nervousness, frozen watchfulness
- Obsessions or phobias
- Sudden under-achievement or lack of concentration
- Inappropriate relationships with peers and/or adults
- Attention-seeking behaviour
- Persistent tiredness
- Running away/stealing/lying

Neglect

- Under nourishment, failure to grow, constant hunger, stealing or gorging food, untreated illnesses, inadequate care, etc

*These indicate the possibility that a child or young person is self-harming. Approximately 20,000 are treated in accident and emergency departments in the UK each year.

A1.3 How to respond to a child wishing to disclose abuse

Effective Listening

Ensure the physical environment is welcoming, giving opportunity for the child or vulnerable adult to talk in private but making sure others are aware the conversation is taking place.

- It is especially important to allow time and space for the person to talk
- Above everything else listen without interrupting
- Be attentive and look at them whilst they are speaking
- Show acceptance of what they say (however unlikely the story may sound) by reflecting back words or short phrases they have used
- Try to remain calm, even if on the inside you are feeling something different
- Be honest and don't make promises you can't keep regarding confidentiality
- If the child decides not to tell you after all, accept his or her decision but let him/her know that you are always ready to listen
- Use language that is age appropriate and, for those with disabilities, ensure there is someone available who understands sign language, Braille etc.

Helpful Responses

- You have done the right thing in telling
- I am glad you have told me
- I will try to help you

Don't Say

- Why didn't you tell anyone before?
- I can't believe it!
- Are you sure this is true?
- Why? How? When? Who? Where?
- I am shocked, don't tell anyone else

Do Say

- I will speak to another grown-up about this and then tell you what we are going to do

Appendix 2. - Abuse of Adults - Definitions, Signs, and Response

A2.1 Definitions of abuse in vulnerable adults

Physical Abuse

Non accidental harm to the body caused by the use of force, which results in pain, injury or a change in the person's natural physical state.

Sexual Abuse or Exploitation

Sexual abuse is the involvement of a vulnerable adult in sexual activities or relationships, which are for the gratification of the other person and which: they have not consented to, or they cannot understand and are not able to consent to, or which violates the individuals expressed cultural or religious preferences, sexual taboos, or family custom and practice.

Psychological/Emotional abuse

Psychological or Emotional abuse is behaviour that has a harmful effect on a vulnerable adult's emotional health and development.

Financial Abuse Or Exploitation Or Material Abuse

Financial or material abuse involves the use of a vulnerable adult's property, assets or income without their informed consent or making financial transactions that they do not understand to the advantage of another person. Some examples are: theft, fraud, exploitation, and pressure in connection with wills, property or inheritance or financial transactions, or the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions or benefits.

Neglect And Acts Of Omission

Neglect is behaviour that results in the vulnerable adult's basic needs not being met.

Discriminatory Abuse

Discriminatory abuse is behaviour that makes or sees a distinction between people as a basis for prejudice or unfair treatment.

Domestic Abuse And Violence

Domestic abuse and violence is best described as the use of physical and/or emotional abuse or violence, including undermining of self-confidence, sexual violence or the threat of violence, by a person who is or has been in a close relationship. Domestic violence can go beyond actual physical violence. It can also involve emotional abuse, the destruction of a spouse's or partner's property, their isolation from friends, family or other potential sources of support, threats to others including children, control over access to money, personal items, food, transportation, telephone, and stalking. It can also include violence perpetrated by a son, daughter or any other person who has a close or blood relationship with the victim. It can also include violence inflicted on, or witnessed by children. The wide adverse effects of living with domestic violence for children must be recognised as a child protection issue. They link to poor educational achievement, social exclusion and to juvenile crime, substance abuse, mental health problems and homelessness from running away. Domestic violence is not a 'one-off' occurrence, but is frequent and persistent and aimed at instilling fear into and compliance from the victim.

Reference: Department of Constitutional Affairs Domestic Violence Guide to Civil Remedies & Criminal Sanctions.

Professional Abuse

Professional Abuse is the misuse of power and abuse of trust by professionals, the failure of professionals to act on suspected abuse/crimes, poor care practice or neglect in services, resource shortfalls or service pressures that lead to service failure and culpability as a result of poor management systems.

Institutional Abuse

Institutional Abuse involves the collective failure of an organisation to provide an appropriate and professional service to vulnerable people. It can be seen or detected in processes, attitudes and behaviour that amount to discrimination through unwitting prejudice, ignorance, thoughtlessness and stereotyping. It includes a failure to ensure the necessary safeguards are in place to protect vulnerable adults and maintain good standards of care in accordance with individual needs, including training of staff, supervision and management, record keeping, unable or unwilling to implement professional or clinical guidelines and liaising with other providers of care.

Abusive behaviour may be part of the accepted custom and culture within an organisation or an individual member of staff, or particular group of staff may carry it out. The key risk factors for institutional abuse are:

- It is widespread within the setting
- It is repeated
- It is generally accepted, it is not seen as being poor practice
- It is sanctioned, it is encouraged or condoned by line managers
- It takes place in a setting where there is poor monitoring by senior management
- There are environmental factors (e.g. unsuitable buildings, lack of equipment, many temporary staff) that adversely affect the quality of care
- It is systematic e.g. factors such as a lack of training, poor operational procedures, poor supervision and management all encourage the development of institutionally abusive practice.

Significant Harm

Significant harm can be taken to include not only ill treatment (including sexual abuse and forms of ill treatment which are not physical), but also the impairment of, or an avoidable deterioration in, physical or mental health; and the impairment of physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural development. (Source: 'Who Decides', Lord Chancellor's Department 1997).

The process of assessing significant harm will include consideration of the following factors:

- The vulnerability of the adult according to the eligibility criteria of the National Health and Community Care Act 1990.
- The apparent impact of the abuse on the vulnerable adult
- The risk of repetition or escalation of abuse involving increasingly serious acts or the extension of the abuse to other vulnerable adults or children under the age of 18
- The degree of corroboration between the outcome of the assessment and the depth and conviction of the feelings expressed by the person reporting the alleged abuse.

If the assessment indicates that there are sufficient indicators of significant harm to the vulnerable adult, it is then necessary to evaluate if intervention is in the best interests of the vulnerable adult and/or in the public interest.

Any or all types of abuse may be perpetrated as the result of deliberate intent, negligence or ignorance.

A2.2 Signs of possible abuse in vulnerable adults

The following signs could be indicators that abuse has taken place but should be considered in the context of the adult's whole life.

Physical

- Injuries not consistent with the explanation given for them
- Injuries that occur in places not normally exposed to falls, recreational activities etc
- Injuries that have not received medical attention
- Reluctance to change for, or participate in, games or swimming
- Repeated urinary infections or unexplained pains
- Bruises or bites, burns, fractures etc which do not have an accidental explanation
- Cuts/scratches/medication and substance abuse*

Sexual

- Any allegations made concerning sexual abuse
- Excessive preoccupation with sexual matters and detailed knowledge of sexual behaviour
- Adult who is sexually provocative or inappropriately seductive with others
- Inappropriate bed-sharing arrangements at home
- Severe sleep disturbances with fears, phobias, vivid dreams or nightmares, sometimes with overt or veiled sexual connotations
- Eating disorders - anorexia, bulimia*

Emotional

- Changes or regression in mood or behaviour, particularly where an adult withdraws or becomes clinging
- Depression, aggression, extreme anxiety
- Nervousness, frozen watchfulness
- Obsessions or phobias
- Sudden under-achievement or lack of concentration
- Inappropriate relationships with peers and/or adults
- Attention-seeking behaviour
- Persistent tiredness
- Running away/stealing/lying

Financial

- Signatures on cheques not resembling the person's signature, or signed when the person can not write.
- Sudden changes in bank accounts including unexplained withdrawals of large sums of money
- Sudden additional names on a person's bank account
- Abrupt changes in a Will or sudden creation of a new Will
- Sudden appearance of previously uninvolved relative claiming their rights to the person's affairs and/or possessions
- Unexplained sudden transfers of assets to a family member of someone outside the family
- Unpaid bills piling up overdue rent or mortgage payments when someone is meant to be ensuring these are paid
- Lack of amenities such as clothes, washing items, TV – things which the person ought to be able to afford
- Unexplained disappearance of money or possessions such as antiques, silver ware, jewellery, pictures.
- Unusual concern from someone that too much money is being spent on the person in need

- Deliberate isolation of a vulnerable adult from friends, or family resulting in the formal or informal carer having complete control.

Discriminatory abuse

- Racism, sexism, religious and ageism, based on a person's disability, and other forms of harassment, slurs or similar treatment.

Neglect

- Ignoring medical or physical care needs, persons physical condition/appearance is poor e.g. ulcers, pressure ulcers, soiled or wet clothing, failure to provide access to appropriate health, social care or educational services, the withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication, adequate nutrition (this may present as constant hunger, stealing or gorging food), and heating and undermining personal beliefs.

The above indicate the possibility that an adult is self-harming.*

A2.3 How to Respond to an Adult Wishing To Disclose Abuse

Effective Listening

Ensure the physical environment feels safe for the adult so that they feel encouraged to talk.

It is especially important to allow time and space for the person to talk.

- Listen without interrupting
- Be attentive and look at them whilst they are speaking
- Show acceptance of what they say (however unlikely the story may sound) by reflecting back words or short phrases they have used
- Try to remain calm, even if on the inside you are feeling something different
- Be honest and don't make promises you can't keep regarding confidentiality
- If they decide not to tell you after all, accept their decision but let them know that you are always ready to listen

If, once they have disclosed information they then decide they do not want it to go any further, you must then discuss this with the Safeguarding Coordinator who will make a record of the conversation.

There may be situations where a SG co-ordinator would contact the local authority even if the person stated that they wanted no further action. This could be to protect either that person or other vulnerable people.

- Use language that is appropriate and respectful. For those with sensory disabilities, ensure there is someone available who understands sign language, Braille etc.

Helpful Responses

- You have done the right thing in telling
- I am glad you have told me
- I will try to help you

Don't Say

- Why didn't you tell anyone before?
- I can't believe it!
- Are you sure this is true?
- Why? How? When? Who? Where?

Do Say

- I will consult with someone and let you know what we are going to do

Dear

x has volunteered to work with children at the x Quaker Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends. This role will include either running or helping to run activities with a small group of children or young people (usually x in number), during our meeting for worship, for approximately 1 hour.

To comply with our Health and Safety and our Safeguarding policies all our volunteers are checked for their suitability to work with children and we are very grateful for your assistance with this.

We are particularly concerned that all our volunteers relate well to children and adults, including showing in their behaviour the Quaker values of fairness, self-control and respect for self and others.

Volunteers need to be sensitive to the varying needs and circumstances of other people, reliable and conscientious, kindly, and have a sense of humour.

I would be grateful if you could complete the enclosed form and return it to me in the enclosed stamped addressed envelope.

Yours sincerely

1. The Local Meeting Appointed Person will sit with you to ensure that all questions are answered in full. The Local Meeting Appointed Person will explain the DBS Update Service, and if you are willing to give permission for Quakers to check your DBS certificate online every 3 years, the Local Meeting Appointed Person will support you with the process of registering with the Update Service at the time of seeking DBS clearance. This service is free if you are a volunteer and is updated automatically. If the DBS certificate is obtained through paid employment it is necessary for the employee to update their registration and pay a fee annually. You will also be asked to complete the "Agreement to permit Quaker access to the DBS Update service", of which your DBS Applicant Manager Local Meeting Appointed Person and the Safeguarding Coordinator should each have a copy. (Or see A3.4.3 below). Alternatively, you could renew your DBS clearance with the Local Meeting Appointed Person every 3 years.
2. To log into the system go to: <https://disclosure.capitarvs.co.uk/cas>.
